

Stylish lady

Esther Maluleke

Catherine Groenewald

Uncle Rhulani and Singita are on their way to the shopping mall.

Singita stares out of the window, watching people walking past.

Singita thinks, “When I am grown up, I want to look like that lady with beautiful long braids.”

“That lady’s wide red belt matches her orange dress so well,” thinks Singita.

“She has a cute handbag. I wonder what she carries in her little bag,” thinks Singita.

“It must be difficult to walk fast while wearing those high-heel shoes!” thinks Singita.

The lady stops to look at hats.

“I wish she would buy that smart yellow hat in the window,” thinks Singita.

As Uncle Rhulani and Singita pass, the lady is arranging her hair.

Her handbag slips from under her arm and falls.

But before the handbag touches the pavement, the lady swoops down and catches it!

The lady smiles to herself and her earrings sparkle in the light.

Singita smiles to herself.

The car moves on, and she slowly loses sight of the stylish lady.

Ulwazi Lwethu is a Zenex Foundation funded and initiated project to develop a series of graded and leisure African language readers and teacher support materials. This project is targeted at teaching and supporting learners in the Foundation Phase to improve their home language reading and understanding. The readers have been originated in nine African languages in collaboration with Molteno Institute for Language and Literacies, Nelson Mandela Institute for Education and Rural Development, Room to Read South Africa, and Saide. All resources are developed as Open Education Resources (OER).

Your attribution should include the following:

Title: Stylish lady

Author/s: Esther Maluleke

Translator/s: Esther Maluleke

Illustrator/s: Catherine Groenewald

Assurer/s: African Storybook

Language: English

© Zenex Foundation - Saide 2023

CC BY includes the following elements:

BY  - Credit must be given to the creator

