Room to Read seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in developing countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, we develop literacy skills and a habit of reading among primary school children, and support girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.

Pham Quang Phuc is a writer, illustrator, and storyteller. He earned a degree in graphic design and has several years of experience as an illustrator. Writing for children has been a dream to Phuc since his childhood. He considers storytelling a way to relax and balance his life, and hopes young readers will gain interests and dreams from his stories.

Huynh Vu Tuong has been fascinated with Japanese animations (such as Doraemon, Pokemon, and Totoro) since he was a child. Tuong earned his degree in graphic design, followed his dream of becoming an artist, and hopes his work will be loved by children.
