

On my home from school, I find a strange seed.
I wonder what kind of seed it is, but nobody in my family knows what it is. Where did this mystery seed come from?

Room to Read seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in developing countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, we develop literacy skills and a habit of reading among primary school children, and support girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.
