

Je vais au jardin. Il est temps
d'arroser les plantes.

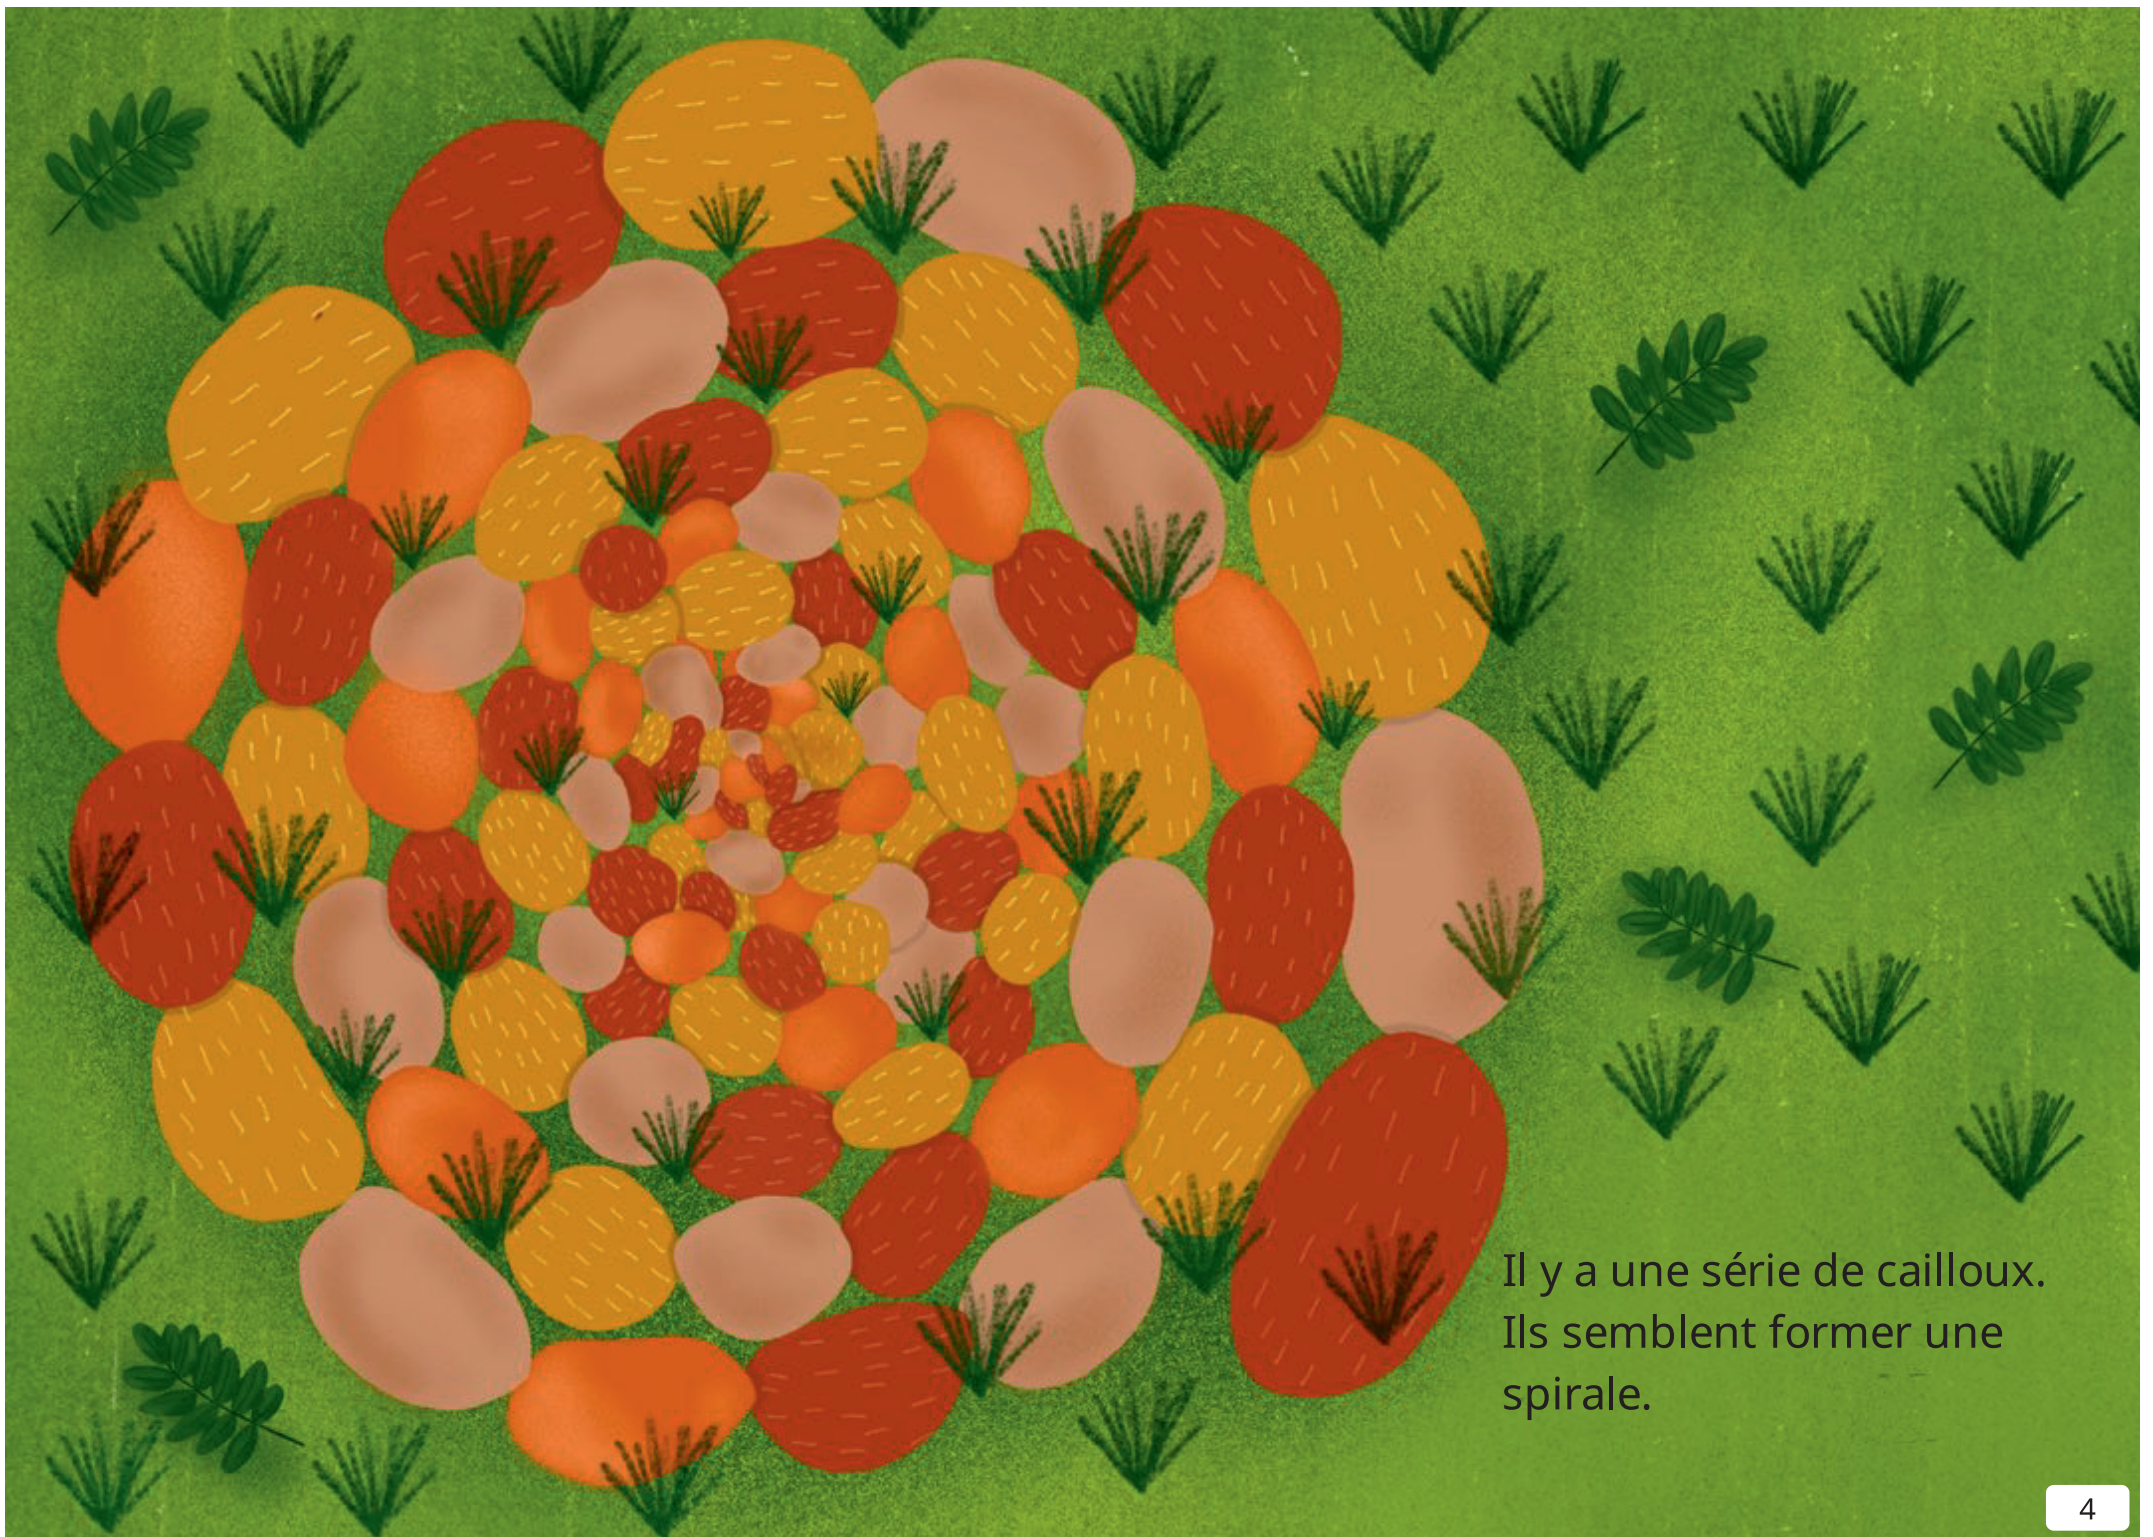

Il y a un lit de fleurs. Des couleurs si vives et si belles.

Il y a une armée de chenilles.
Elles ressemblent à l'herbe !

Il y a une série de cailloux.
Ils semblent former une spirale.

An illustration of autumn leaves falling from a balcony railing. The scene is set against a light blue sky with large, soft white clouds. The balcony railing is a dark grey horizontal bar with vertical posts. Below the railing is a green lawn with scattered autumn leaves in shades of brown, orange, and dark green. The leaves are also shown falling through the air, some near the railing and others further up. The overall style is soft and artistic.

Il y a des feuilles d'automne éparpillées.
Je les entends bruisser dans le vent.

The image features a flock of approximately 15 black bird silhouettes in flight against a light blue background. The background is decorated with large, overlapping, circular patterns that resemble water ripples or soft clouds. The birds are scattered across the frame, each in a different stage of flight, with wings spread in various directions. In the bottom left corner, there is a short paragraph of text in French. In the bottom right corner, there is a small white box containing the number 6.

Pi-u ! Pi-u !
Je lève les yeux et je vois
une volée d'oiseaux.

Soudain, une couverture de nuages gris se
forme dans le ciel.
On dirait qu'il va pleuvoir.

Il est temps de rentrer à l'intérieur !
