

Our Friends in the Wild

Author
Ananta Prasad Wagle

Illustrator
Samit Shrestha

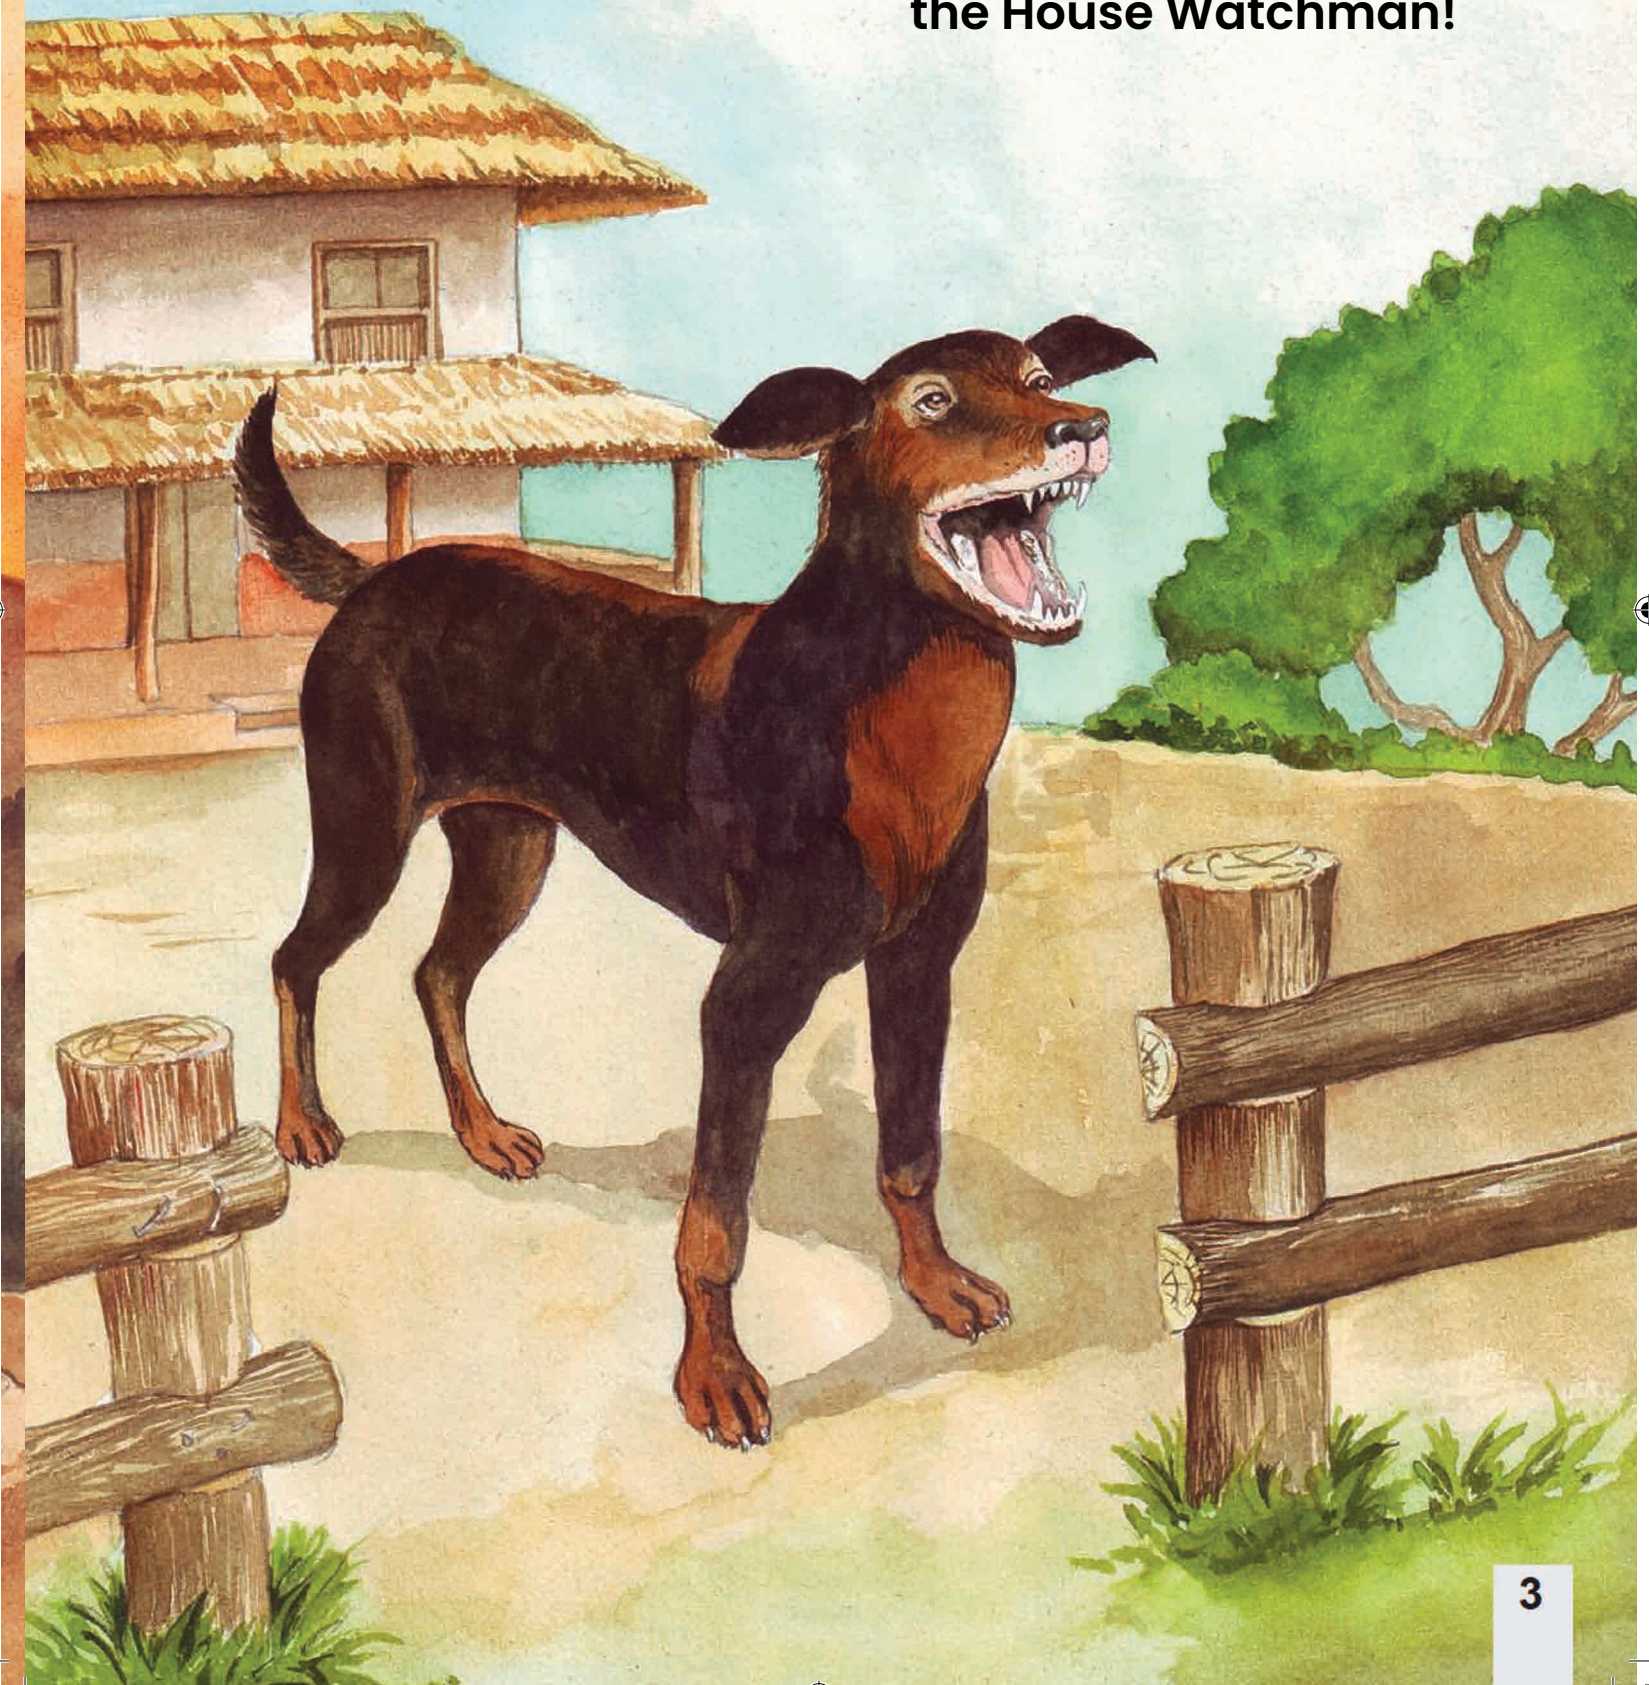

A detailed illustration of a red rooster with a large red comb and wattle, standing on a tall, conical woven basket. The rooster is facing right with its beak open as if crowing. The background features a warm, orange and yellow sky with a large, bright sun low on the horizon, suggesting sunrise. In the foreground, there is a wooden fence and a dirt path. The overall style is that of a classic children's book illustration.

The Time-Watching Bird

“Cock-a-doodle-doo, cock-a-doodle-do!”
The Time-Watching Bird tells us when it’s morning time. It is the red rooster!

The House Watchman

“Woof! Woof!” Kale, the black dog, is
the House Watchman!

The Postal Bird

A letter here, a letter there. The Postal Bird is the pigeon!

The Talkative Bird

Learning to speak,
learning to sing.
The Talkative Bird is the parrot!

The Builder Bird

A little bit of mud, a little bit of water.
The Builder Bird is the swallow!

The Tailor Bird

A little stitching here, a little knitting there. The Tailor Bird is the weaverbird!

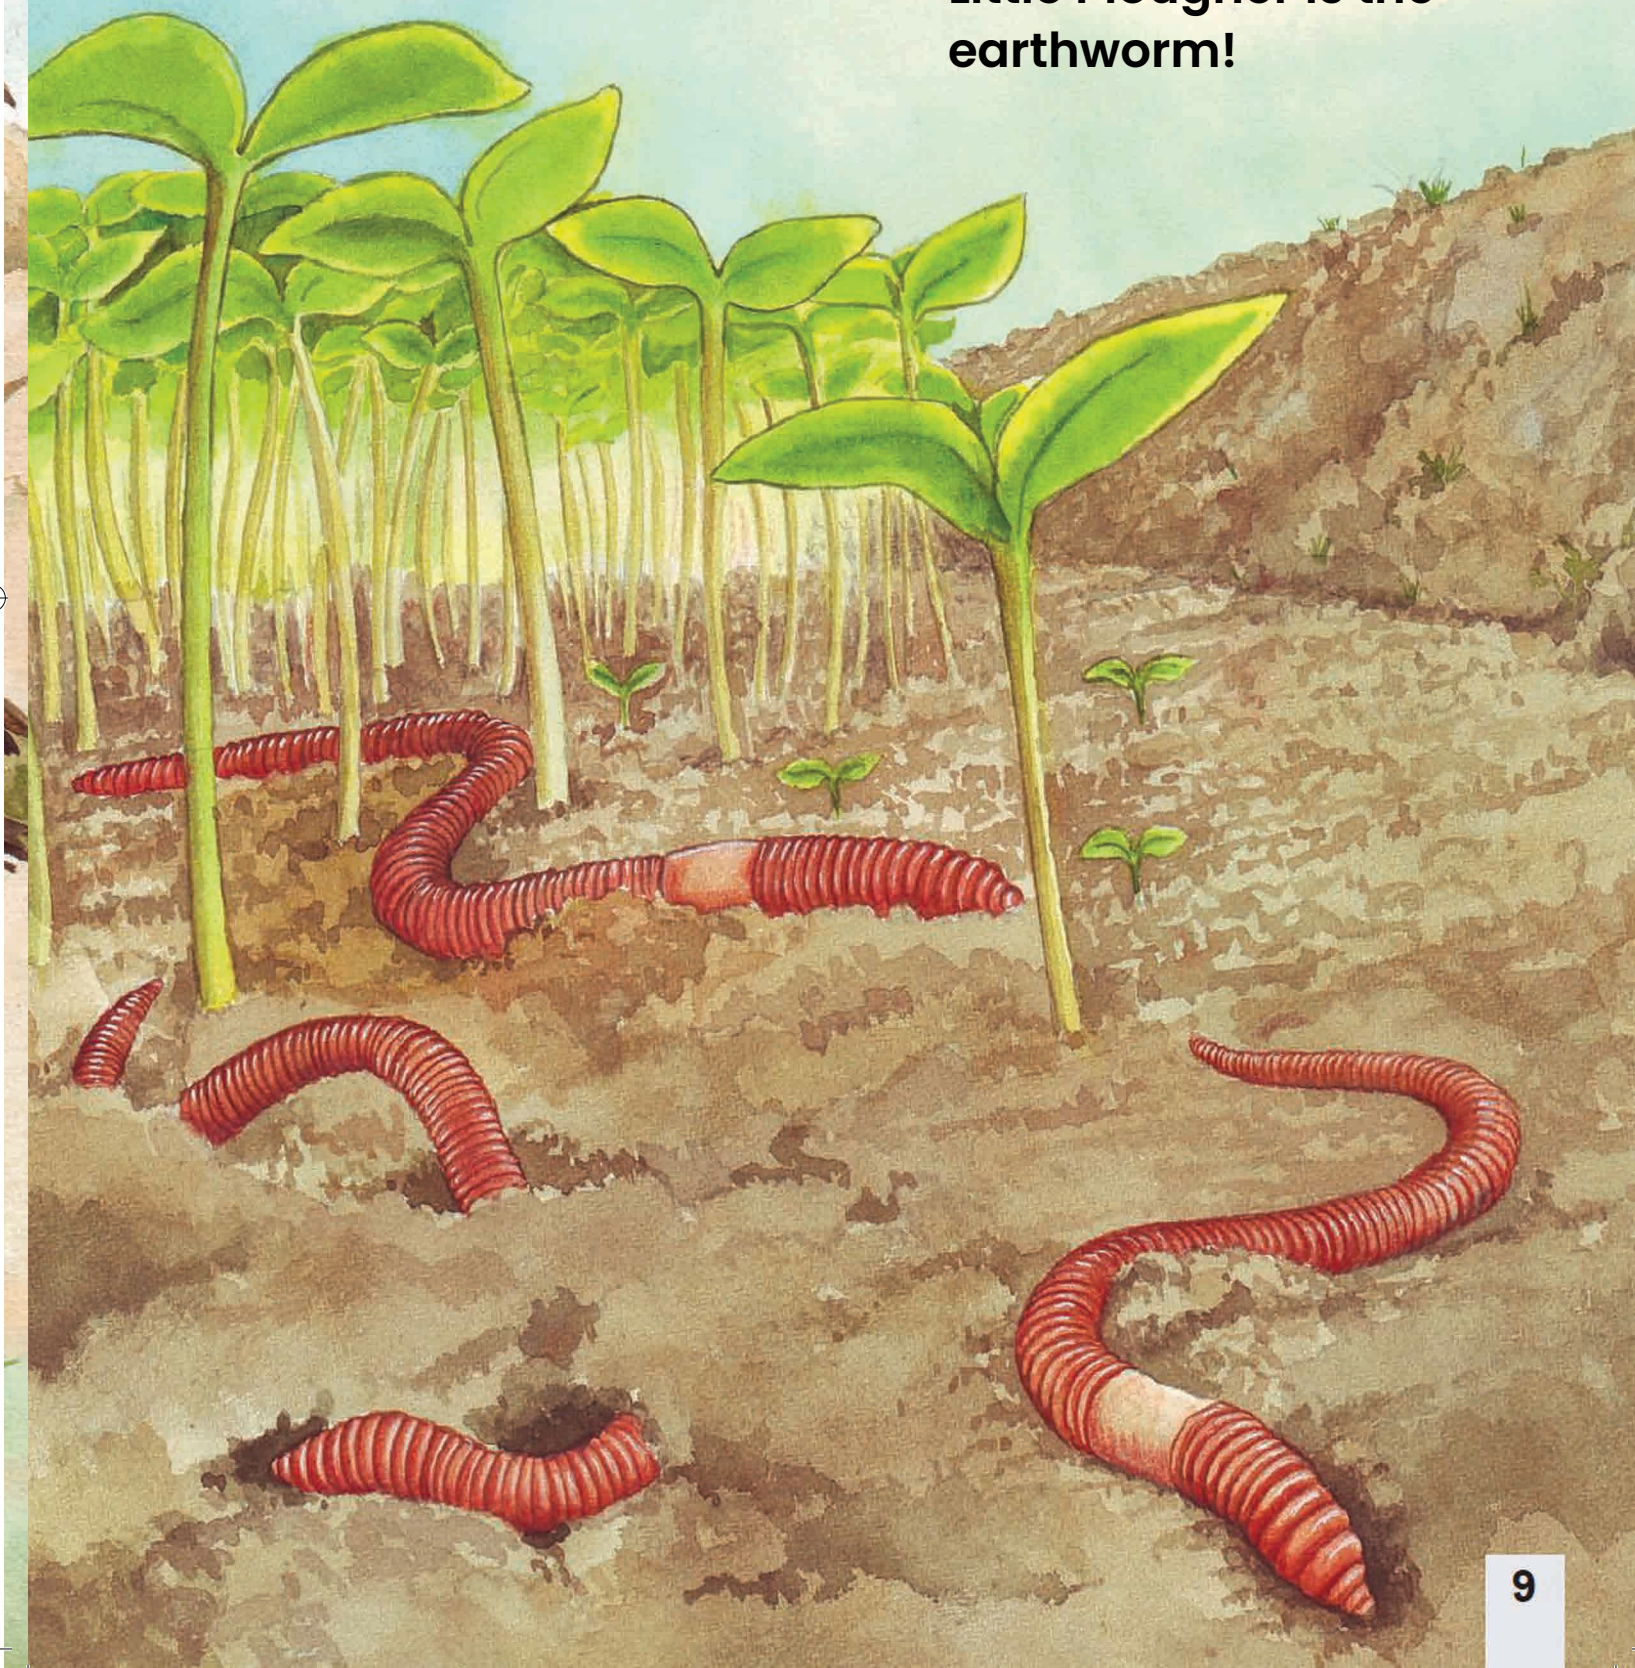

The Cleaner Bird

Cleans the bones, cleans the landscape.
The Cleaner Bird is the vulture!

The Little Plougher

It burrows and ploughs the whole garden. The Little Plougher is the earthworm!

The Pony Car

Traveling narrow and steep roads where cars cannot go. The Pony Car is the donkey!

The Desert Ship

Roaming the vast,
sea-like deserts with ease. The Desert Ship is the camel!

The Insect Doctor

Its honey is sweet medicine, and it stings only when needed. The Insect Doctor is the honeybee!

