Dance Khuzwayo, dance!

Fiske Serah Nyirongo Jess Jardim-Wedepohl Job Mubinya

Everyone knows that Khuzwayo loves to dance.

When the village leader
chooses him to be the next Ingoma dancer, no
one is surprised.

Ingoma is a dance to celebrate the first crops at the beginning of the year.

Khuzwayo's family is proud.

But Khuzwayo is worried.

How will he dance in front of
so many people
from so many villages?

He normally only performs for a few neighbours.

“I can’t do it!
It’s too scary.”

He

runs

away ...

Everyone wonders where he is.
No one can find him.

But Khuzwayo's best friends know exactly where he would be!

“Why did you run
away?”

“I am nervous.
What if I make a mistake?”

“We can help you.
Let’s all practise together!”

“Khuzwayo, you’re so good. You’re ready to dance with the older dancers!”

Khuzwayo
grows more confident.

On the day of the Ingoma dance Khuzwayo leads his village to the arena
wearing a special outfit.

He still feels a little nervous, but the
rattles on his feet
guide him.

He stomps his legs.

He waves his arms.

Everyone loves

Khuzwayo's dance!
